Re: Paredes v. Ryer Parking LLC, et al., 24-CV-396 (VSB)

Judge Broderick:

We represent Plaintiff Roman Paredes in the above-captioned action and write, with the consent and approval of Defendants' counsel, to request that the existing deadlines for discovery be adjourned pending the completion of mediation, which the Court directed that the parties engage in by order dated July 29, 2024. (ECF No. 32 (the "Mediation Order").) While, at present, a mediator has yet to be appointed, the parties have already commenced the exchange of documents as directed by the Mediation Order and have engaged in preliminary discussions concerning settlement. An adjournment of the pending deadlines would allow the parties to focus their efforts on preparing for mediation, and potential resolution of the matter, without the added burden and expense of discovery. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the pending deadlines be adjourned sine die until the mediation is completed.

Respectfully submitted,

Eyal Dror
